

Juba electricity

Overview

Providing reliable, efficient electricity services to power communities across South Sudan. It was founded in May 2018 as a public private partnership between Ezra Construction & Development Group Ltd. (ECDG) and South Sudan Electricity Corporation (SSEC), holding respectively 52% and 48% of shares. ENERGY SERVING TIPS JEDCO wishes to inform the general public and its valued customers. In Juba, electricity bills are poised to drop after President Salva Kiir ordered tariffs cut from 1 November 2025, a move welcomed by households and entrepreneurs alike. The move was welcomed by many residents as a step.

Juba electricity

Juba: Kiir orders review of 'costly' electricity deal

Currently, Juba's sole electricity provider is the Juba Electricity Distribution Company (JEDCO), a public-private partnership between Ezra Construction & Development Group (ECDG), which

Get Price

JEDCO to cut Juba electricity tariffs under Kiir directive

In Juba, electricity bills are poised to drop after President Salva Kiir ordered tariffs cut from 1 November 2025, a move welcomed by households and entrepreneurs alike.

Get Price

Power Struggle in Juba: Ezra Defies Kiir's Order to Cut Electricity

For now, the people of Juba remain in the dark both literally and figuratively as they wait to see whether the Presidency or Ezra will prevail in the battle over who controls the price of power.

Get Price

Juba Electricity Distribution Company Ltd. (JEDCO)

JEDCO, the only licensed electricity distribution company receives electricity from the ECDG power plant and distributes it in Juba. JEDCO strives to provide consistent quality and competitively priced services that ...

Get Price

Juba Electric Distribution Company

In January 2021, JEDCO suspended electricity supply in Juba due to difficulties in accessing foreign currency required for fuel and operational payments. The disruption led to public complaints and negotiations with ...

Get Price

Juba Electric Distribution Company

Overview History Operations Ownership and governance Tariffs and regulation

JEDCO was formed in May 2018 following a concession agreement with the Government of South Sudan to manage electricity distribution in Juba. It began operations in November 2019 after the commissioning of the Ezra thermal power plant, marking the first privately managed electricity distribution system in the country. In January 2021, JEDCO suspended electricity supply in Juba due to difficulties in ac...

Get Price

Juba Electric Distribution Company

Juba Electric Distribution Company - JEDCO, Juba. 30,807 likes · 625 talking about this · 706 were here. JEDCO is a Private Public Partnership company

Get Price

South Sudan Steps Up Efforts to Expand Electricity Supply in Juba

JUBA -- South Sudan has announced plans to intensify efforts to address chronic power shortages and expand electricity distribution in Juba and other urban centers, as the country continues to ...

Get Price

Electricity Costs Eased in Juba While National Plan Still Unclear

Generation capacity in Juba is still limited, relying on a mix of hydro power and diesel stations. Maintaining lower prices while covering costs will be difficult unless efficiency improves.

Get Price

Juba Electric Distribution Company

JEDCO is a Private Public Partnership company incorporating EZRA Construction and Development Group and the South Sudan Electricity

Corporation. JEDCO is the only electricity service ...

Get Price

Applications

Contact Us

For catalog requests, pricing, or partnerships, please visit:
<https://www.k3gizycko.pl>

